Built for Adventure. Committed to the Wild.

A rooftop tent should feel like more than just equipment. With Top Dog Tents, it’s a place to crash after a hundred miles, a basecamp when the rain comes down, and a front-row seat to the stars. Every tent is designed for comfort and durability—made to fit trucks, SUVs, crossovers, and trailers.

Adventure isn’t our only mission. We donate a portion of every rooftop tent purchase to forest and national park preservation, helping ensure future generations can camp under the same stars.

With over 20 years of manufacturing experience, we’ve built a track record of innovation—and earned more than a dozen patents along the way. Top Dog Tents are built to outlast rough roads, harsh weather, and endless miles. High quality. Fair price. Adventure-ready. That’s why we lead the pack.
